QUÉBEC CHAPTER

The Québec Chapter of The American Chamber of Commerce in Canada, known as AmCham Canada, is based in Montreal, the province's commercial hub. At the confluence of language and culture, AmCham Canada's Québec chapter is uniquely positioned to serve the needs of firms involved in the US-Canada business and trade relationship. From clarifying language policy to demystifying tax and legal regulations on both sides of the border to putting members into contact with experts on best practices in developing business in 'the other market', the Québec chapter serves the province's vibrant and diverse business community in its relationships with Canada's largest trading partner.

THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN CANADA (AMCHAM CANADA)

The American Chamber of Commerce in Canada (AmCham Canada) is a private, non-profit, membership organization that promotes the two-way flow of trade and investment between Canada and the United States.

AmCham Canada has chapters in Ontario (Toronto, Halton-Peel, Ottawa), in Québec (Montreal), the West (Calgary and Vancouver), and Atlantic Canada (Halifax). AmCham Canada is dedicated to promoting trade opportunities, advancing economic growth, and promoting the cross-border mobility of people, goods and services. AmCham Canada continually strives to promote and foster a positive climate for commerce, trade and investment between the United States and Canada.

AmCham Canada's membership is composed of large and small U.S. companies that operate within Canada, as well as Canadian companies of all sizes that sell to or operate in the United States. AmCham is affiliated with the United States Chamber of Commerce, with links to other chambers of commerce throughout the United States. AmCham Canada is independent from the governments of Canada and the United States.

AMERICAN CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE WORLDWIDE

The American Chamber of Commerce in Canada is among 116 American Chambers of Commerce (AmChams) worldwide. With locations in over one hundred countries, these chambers are part of the U.S. Chamber Federation, and are affiliated with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, headquartered in Washington D.C.
